

Introducing the New College Credit-version of our

Supervision and Management Academy

Leading others to do a job well calls for a unique set of skills, knowledge and perspectives. In this series, you will learn essential skills and develop a new perspective based on solid supervisory theory to achieve success in managing people and tasks. Each 0.5 unit class is taught using experiential learning methodologies and designed to expand your level of skill whether you are a first time manager or have been supervising others for years.

All 6 classes will be taught during Fall and Spring. Students completing all 6 classes receive a certificate from Community Programs- Institute for Professional Development.

Classes run from 1-5pm on the 1st & 3rd Wednesday monthly at the Ludwick Community Center
864 Santa Rosa Street, Room A, San Luis Obispo
