Central Coast Paramedic Program Graduates First Class at Cuesta College

The first class of paramedics will graduate from the Central Coast Paramedic Program at Cuesta College on Friday, September 7.

The Central Coast Paramedic Program is a collaborative effort between Cuesta College and Allan Hancock College. The curriculum spans three semesters and prepares working students to take the licensing exam for the National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians Paramedic (NREMTP) to become a licensed California paramedic. It is the only paramedic training program in San Luis Obispo County and Northern Santa Barbara County.

A celebration ceremony will be held in honor of the first 11 graduates of the program at the Cuesta College Student Center, Building 5401 at 6 p.m. on September 7.
