Gallery to Present “Where the Sewer Meets the Sea” Through Mid-November

The Cuesta College Art Gallery will feature the exhibition, “Where the Sewer Meets the Sea: A Blimp Ride Over Los Angeles Harbor,” from October 19 to November 16, with a special artist’s presentation on opening night.

The southern California artist, Kiel Johnson, detailed his adventures in the Port of Los Angeles for the exhibit. Johnson’s art series is a collection of aerial landscapes in graphite, with a cartoon-esque quality. The pieces range in size from small creations to grand-scale sized works. The exhibition in the Cuesta College Art Gallery will also feature a drawing by Johnson created specifically for this exhibition and will only be on display for the duration of the show on campus.

Johnson will open the exhibition with an artist’s talk and presentation on Friday, October 19 at 5 p.m. in room 7120. The opening reception will follow from 6 to 8 p.m. in the gallery.

The exhibition will run from October 19 through November 16 in the gallery Monday through Friday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. It is sponsored in part by the City of San Luis Obispo Promotional Coordinating Committee.
