Cuesta Hosts 19th Annual Learning Disabilities Conference on November 16

The 19th Annual Central Coast Learning Disabilities (LD) Conference will feature Rick Lavoie on November 16 from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Cuesta College Conference Center, Room 5401.

The conference is aimed at parents, teachers, professionals, persons with learning disabilities and anyone interested in knowing more about the topic. Lavoie, author of newly released The Motivation Breakthrough: 6 Secrets to Turning on the Tuned-Out Child, has been working with special needs children since 1972. Lavoie is also known for his videos “How Difficult Can This Be?: The F.A.T. City Workshop” and “Last One Picked, First One Picked On: The Social Implications of Learning Disabilities.”

The registration fee for the conference is $90. Continuing Education Units (CEUs) are available for professional development for an additional fee. Pre-registration is encouraged as seats may not be available the day of the event. To register for the Central Coast Learning Disabilities Conference, contact Cuesta College Community Programs at 546-3132. Registration forms can also be found online at www.communityprograms.net, course #LDC 101.307.
