Cuesta College Board of Trustees Extends Offer to Leading Presidential Candidate

An offer has been extended to Dr. David Pelham by the San Luis Obispo County Community College District Board of Trustees to assume the role of Superintendent/President of Cuesta College.

According to Board of Trustees President Angela Mitchell, contract negotiations have begun and the hiring committee is optimistic that an agreement will be reached.

“We hope to have those (negotiations) resolved within the next week, and we’re looking forward to a very positive outcome,” Mitchell said.

The offer was made following a site visit by several college representatives to College of the Siskiyous in Weed, Calif. where Pelham currently serves as Superintendent/President.
