Cuesta Opens the Holiday Season with Choir Concert

The Cuesta College Chamber Singers, Voce and Concert Choir present two opportunities to welcome in the holiday season with the Holiday Choir Concert on Sunday, December 2 and Friday, December 7.

The event will feature festive and spiritual songs from the past and present, including a hip-hop twist to Tchaikovsky's "Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy," a jazz version of "The First Noel," and a gospel version of "Deck the Halls." The program will also include Austrian carols, American holiday favorites, Hanukkah songs, and classics by Francis Poulenc and Gustav Holst.

The Holiday Choir Concert is directed by John Knutson and will be featured at two locations in Morro Bay and San Luis Obispo. The December 2 show will be at St. Timothy's Church in Morro Bay, and the December 7 show will be at the First Baptist Church of San Luis Obispo.
