Cuesta Art Gallery to Feature Internationally Exhibited Artist in February

The Cuesta College Art Gallery is hosting the internationally exhibited, Bay Area-based artist, Squeak Carnwath, and her newest paintings and prints as the featured exhibit in February.

The exhibit will be the first public viewing for her new series and will be the artist's first exhibition on the Central Coast. Carnwath is known for her large scale paintings with layered images and meanings that chronicle her life.

Carnwath has been an artist and activist for 30 years. She is also a professor in residence at the University of California, Berkeley since 1998 and worked as a professor of art at University of California, Davis from 1983 to 1998.

A panel interview will be held with the artist on the opening day of the exhibition, February 8, at 5 p.m. in room 7120 on Cuesta College's San Luis Obispo Campus. Carnwath's exhibit will be on display in the Cuesta College Art Gallery from February 8 through March 5.
