Wine, Dine and Jazz to Support Cuesta College Singers European Tour

Cuesta College and Castoro Cellars are hosting the “Wine, Dine and Jazz,” fundraising dinner and concert on Sunday, February 24. The event is part of the Cuesta College Performing Arts Division’s “Europe for a Song” fundraising campaign to help send the Cuesta Chamber Singers and Voce group on a European Tour this summer.

The Cuesta Chamber Singers and Voce will perform throughout Spain and France on a two-week tour, which will include performances at the prestigious San Sebastian Jazz Festival and the Festival Polyphonique. Thirty students will be participating in the European Tour and will pay for half of the trip, approximately $3,900 per student, out of pocket. The choir hopes to raise the other half of the expenses through the “Europe for a Song” campaign.

“Wine, Dine and Jazz” will feature performances by the choirs, live jazz entertainment provided by Cuesta students, and a live auction run by local auctioneer Gil Stork while attendees enjoy dinner and Castoro Cellars wine.

Tickets for the event must be purchased in advance and are $25 per person or $40 per couple. For more information or to purchase tickets, contact Cuesta College Performing Arts at 546-3195.
