Cuesta College Library to Host Book Sale Thanks to Donation

Friends of the Library of Cuesta College will host a book sale open to the public starting on Monday, June 16 and running throughout the summer.

Cuesta College's library recently acquired more than 60,000 used books thanks to a donation by a local couple. Some of the books will be added to the library's collection, but many will be sold at the book sale. All proceeds from the ongoing sale will support the Friends of the Library of Cuesta College.

The book sale will open Monday, June 16, the first day of the summer semester, at 8 a.m. and continue throughout the summer whenever the library is open. Mass-market paperbacks will be sold for 25 cents. Trade paperbacks, hardcover books and coffee-table books will be sold for $1. Buyers are encouraged to bring their own bags to carry away their books.

The library is open Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. during the summer.
