Cuesta's Accreditation Warning Removed

Cuesta College received notice from the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges that Cuesta College has fulfilled all the requirements issued in a warning letter received in January, and the warning status is lifted.

On January 31, Cuesta College received a warning for having too many vacant administrative positions, in addition to a request to refine their budgeting and certain strategic academic processes. Cuesta College administrators and the Board of Trustees worked to meet the suggestions of the Accrediting Commission and a status visit by the commission occurred in early April, promising a response to the College's progress in July.

A warning is the mildest reproach taken by the Commission to rectify areas of concern in community colleges. Cuesta College has been and continues to be an accredited community college and one of the premier community colleges in the state.
