Cuesta College Presents “The Real Inspector Hound” in December

The cast of Cuesta College’s performing arts production, “The Real Inspector Hound,” will reveal whodunit at one of the eight performances in December.

Written by Tom Stoppard, the classic parlor mystery is a play within a play that parodies the stereotypical mystery story. The one-act play is directed by David Sprague and produced by Cuesta College’s Performing Arts students.

Performances will be held on December 4, 5, 6, 11, 12 and 13 at 8 p.m., and on December 7 and 14 at 2 p.m. in Cuesta College’s Interact Theater. Tickets are $10 for students and seniors, and $12 for general admission. For reservations, call 546-3195.
