Cuesta College Hosts Extreme Registration Event to Open Spring Semester

Cuesta College is hosting Extreme Registration on Tuesday, January 13, offering students registering for the spring semester one stop access to the Cuesta College Student Services Departments at both the North County and San Luis Obispo campuses.

Extreme Registration will last all day until 9 p.m. on both campuses. Students in attendance will be able to register for classes, receive financial aid information, attend walk-in counseling sessions, buy parking permits and pay fees for classes. Cuesta representatives from a variety of departments, including EOPS/CARE and Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSPS), will also be available to meet with students.

Free pizza and drinks will also be offered to those in attendance from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. or until supplies last. The spring semester begins on Tuesday, January 20. Registration is open now through January 15.
