

COMPENSATION FOR BOARD MEMBERS	1280

Members of the Board of Trustees may receive compensation for attendance at one or all regular and special Board meetings, up to a maximum of $240 in any one month. This amount shall be modified in the future, as necessary.

Any Board member who does not attend all meetings held by the Board in any one month may receive, as compensation for his or her services, an amount not greater than a pro rata share of the number of meetings actually attended based upon the maximum compensation authorized.

A Board member absent from a meeting because he or she is representing the District at a conference or meeting or otherwise attending to District business shall be compensated for the Board meeting as if the Board member had been present, subject to a resolution duly adopted and included in the Board minutes.
